

Faryab province of Afghanistan suicide bombing killed 41 person

Forty-one people died and 56 others were injured in Friday's powerful suicide attack outside a mosque in Maimana City, capital of northern Faryab province. Security personnel, civilians and children died in the brazen attack at about 9:30 AM in front of a mosque's entrance when worshippers were preparing for the Eid al-Adha prayer.

Police official said the attacker detonated his explosive among the security forces when the police chief and other security officers were leaving the mosque after Eid prayer.

One of the injured police said: "We were leaving the mosque when a man wearing police uniform approached us, we guessed he is our colleague but suddenly he detonated his explosives."

So far no group has claimed responsibility for the attack in Maimana City but the ministry of interior of Afghanistan has said, all the evidence shows, the act was carried out by the Taliban insurgents.

Afghan President Hamid Karzai on Sunday visited the northern province of Faryab that was a bloody suicide attack on Friday and expressed condolences to bereaving families. Karzai denounced the attack.

The government of Afghanistan will help all the victims' families and would fulfill their needs," Afghan president Hamid Karzai told a gathering at the governor's office, He added the government of Afghanistan would also provide land for the victims' families and free education for their children.

He told to a child who has lost 6 family members in Friday's powerful suicide attack, be confident, providing food and free education is the government of Afghanistan responsibility for you.

The promises wasn't acceptable for some participant of the meeting; they criticized Afghan president Hamid Karzai, one of the participant of the meeting asked Afghan president Karzai," if you are at the service of people, why you get rid the arrested insurgents from jails for doing such a tragedy? "Afghan president Karzai accepted the criticism, and said you are right.

The attack had widespread reaction inside and out side of Afghanistan, UN mission in Afghanistan condemn the attack and want extensive research about the attack, Ekmaluddin Ahsan Oghlo Secretary General of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation also condemns the attack and called it shocking.
